Description

- Manufacturer: HECKLER & KOCH

- Model: P7 M8

Product Details:

The P7M8 is a unique design with a lever for the front strap that when squeezed in a normal firing grip, cocks the gun. It's very unusual and is designed not to fire unless the grip is pressed. When released, the gun decocks, eliminating the need for an external safety. But the P7M8 also has a firing pin drop safety that is meant to prevent the gun from firing if dropped, and unless the cocking lever is pressed, the sear cannot engage the firing pin to fire the gun. SIG-Sauer contributed the P6, known in this country commercially as the P-228, Walther brought out their P5, which was a modernized P-38 with an enclosed barrel, combination slide stop and decocking lever, while H&K came up with the PSP (Police Self-loading Pistol), later known as the P7. As usual, H&K, known even more for different and innovative designs that Walther, came up with what is, in my opinion, possibly the best compact service pistol ever made.

Important Magazine Information

Southern Tactical follows all state regulations regarding the sale of high-capacity magazines. Due to multiple states and cities now enforcing various magazine restrictions, we will not ship magazines that are restricted in your area with firearms to the states that don’t allow them to. If the mag that comes with the firearm is not legal in your state or city the magazine will be removed from the shipment. We do not offer custom magazine requests to swap out, ship to another state, refund, pinning of mag, substitutions, dealer approval or other. Hopefully we will see changes to these laws and violations to our second amendment rights. We apologize for this, but we simply cannot accommodate each magazine request with over 30 different laws, regulations and restrictions impacting states, cities and local jurisdictions throughout the country. It is the customer’s responsibility to be informed of your local laws prior to completing your purchase. Southern Tactical is not responsible for any issues that may arise with magazines shipped to you or your FFL dealer that may not be legal in your area due to a change in current laws.
